METHODISTS TO
USE OLD LOCUST
STREET CHURCH

HISTORY OF CHURCH OF INTER-EST. SITE PURCHASED
IN 1874.

NOW USED BY D'PAUW

Aggregation Met Many Discourage-ments During Early Days. Bad Fire Occurred In 1905.

The Methodist congregation of this city are moving this week from the College Avenue church on Semi-pleet church on Locust and Anderson, where they will continue to hold services until the new church is ready for occupancy.

The Locust Street Church has an interesting history. The ground, on which it stands was purchased by the Methodists from the Presbyterians in 1874. It is the site on which the Presbyterian Female College building stood. That building was torn down in 1875. When this new church building was near completion, a terrific storm visited Greencastle, and left this church entirely a complete wreck. The situation was most discouraging for the struggling society, but the people went to work, and out of the rubble built a one-story instead of two-story church originally designed. Henry A. Buchtel, then a student in Old Asbury, afterwards chancellor of the University of Denver and Governor of Colorado, was leader in those days.

This church enjoyed a long line of ministry. The building was dedicated in 1876. In the long list of pastors who followed Dr. Buchtel are names as J. V. R. Miller, John Webb, Riley Halstead, William M. ing, Albert Hulstone, etc. Among ministers of more recent times were the names of W. H. Wylie, J.
O'Haver, J. M. Walker, E. D.
R. H. Toole. The last pastor to serve in this church was H. C.
Snyder.

A fire on the night of Thanksgiving Day 1905 destroyed the interior of the building and its furnishings.
Following year the church was rebuilt and refurbished at a cost almost equal to the original cost of the building.

The Locust Street group were always noted for their evangelistic zeal.
Numerous great revivals have taken place within the walls of this old edifice, and many persons in all corners of the world have tender memories which run back to the altar of this historic house of worship.

After the Locust Street Society was merged with the College Avenue Society, the building was taken over by DePauw University and has been used as the Public Speaking Department.
The College Avenue Church, which now being taken over by the University, will be converted into a more adequate housing for this thriving growing department.

Sunday services of the Methodists of Greencastle will be held in the Locust Street church next Sunday.

HEAT TAKES TOLL

NEW YORK, June 18. (UP)—With three persons dead and 13 others prostrated in the terrific heat in the past 48 hours, the metropolitan area entered its fifth day of summer warmth today with no prospects of immediate relief.

Five more persons were drowned yesterday. Jumping to a maximum of 90 degrees just before noon, the mercury remained at that mark until dusk.

TOMORROW IS
BARBECUE DAY

EVERYTHING READY FOR BIG TIME AT LONE STAR CEMENT PLANT

Everything is in readiness for the big barbecue at the Lone Star Cement Plant at Limestone tomorrow.

Fires were started Tuesday morning, preparatory to the cooking of the meat and beans which will be served from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m.
Wednesday. There will be enough food to serve more than ten thousand people and about this number are expected to attend the barbecue and inspect the big cement mill and grounds.

The Lone Star officials have spared no expense in preparing for the barbecue. Everything will be free and there will be souvenirs for all the visitors. Adequate parking space has been provided for hundreds of automobiles and employees will act as guides and show visitors through the plant. Special trains will run from the plant to the stone quarry and music during the day will be furnished by the Greencastle Band.

Merchants of the city, co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce, will close their stores from 10 o'clock until 2 o'clock tomorrow in order to give their assistants an opportunity to go to the barbecue. Many attractive bargains in merchandise are also being offered during the day at the various business houses.

The big day will end Wednesday night with a band concert on the public square. The stores will remain open during the evening and cement company officials and merchants believe that June 19, will be one of the biggest days in the history of Greencastle and Putnam county.

numerous cuts and bruises about the head and face, and an artery in his left arm was severed.

OTHO COFFMAN
CHARGED WITH
CHICKEN THEFT

ALLEGED TO HAVE STOLEN
WYANDOTTES FROM ED
STONE FARM

PLACED IN COUNTY JAIL

Coffman. It is charged, Sold Chickens To Cloverdale Man. Arrested Monday By Sheriff.

Interception of the stolen goods, and arrest of an alleged chicken thief in the space of a few hours, is the accomplishment of county officers in the arrest of Otho Coffman, Monday.
Coffman is said to have stolen 18 White Wyandottes from the farm of Edward Stone, three miles southeast of Greencastle.

The chickens were taken sometime Sunday night or early Monday morning, and Coffman immediately took them to Cloverdale where he sold them to Paul Byrd. Byrd was ready to take a load of chickens to Indianapolis to sell them and when Coffman brought the stolen chickens to him he already had several crates on the truck.

When he discovered his loss Stone telephoned a deputy sheriff at Mt.
Meridian and told him to be on the watch for any chickens going through there on the way to Indianapolis. He left a description of them with the deputy.

Byrd with a load of chickens was stopped by the deputy at Mt. Meridian about nine o'clock Monday morning and nine White Wyandottes were found and four mixed chickens.

These chickens were taken back Monday afternoon to the farm of Edward Stone. The Wyandottes were said to have acted as if they had been accustomed to their surroundings, and took a drink at the usual place, and roosted that night in their regular place. The mixed chickens were also placed in the same yard but they did not act as if they were accustomed to it.

Coffman was brought to Greencastle by the deputy and is now being held in the county jail pending arraignments before Judge James P.
Hughes in the circuit court.

Byrd was not detained by the officer, but was allowed to continue on his way to Indianapolis. Coffman is said to live west of Greencastle.

ADVANCE CRASH THEORY

LONDON, June 18 (UP)—The first explanation of the mystifying disaster to the Airplane City of Ottawa, which crashed in the English Channel yesterday with a loss of seven lives, was advanced today by The Daily Star.

The Star said it understood the plane encountered difficulty throughout the breaking of an engine shaft, which smashed two holes in the bottom of the plane. The plane also turned over when it hit the water, the Star said, submerging the emergency exit in the roof, partially accounting for the deaths.

TAKEN TO STATE FARM

Two men were taken to the Indiana State Farm at Putnamville Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Edward Eiteljorge to start serving sentences given them in the circuit court.

William Coffman who was given a thirty day sentence and a $200 fine on charges of possession and sale of liquor Monday, was one of the men. The other was Aaron Goldstein, colored, who entered a plea of guilty several days ago to driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

The fine against Coffman of $100 on the charge of the sale of liquor was suspended by Judge James P.
Hughes Monday afternoon.

DIVORCE GRANTED

The suit of Hannah Bullerick versus Ray Bullerick was continued in the circuit court before Judge James P. Hughes Tuesday morning. Mrs.
Bullerick was on the stand most of the morning.

The divorce was granted by Judge James P. Hughes in the circuit court Tuesday afternoon on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The evidence was completed in the morning and the judge gave his decision in the afternoon. The custody of their child is to remain with the court, but she is to live with her mother.
During the last Saturday and Sunday of each month the daughter is to live with her father. Four dollars a week was allowed by the court for her support.

LANDSLIDE REPORTED

POPAYAN, Colombia, June 18.—A landslide occurred today at the village of Cauca, and meager reports reaching here said 30 persons had been killed and many injured.

200 YEARS HENCE.

What will happen 200 years hence?
This question was being considered by many Tuesday when it became known that Will H. Latta, trustee of DePauw University, who was killed in an accident last week, had left a sum of money which will total about $17,500,000 when it becomes available for use by DePauw, 200 years hence.
The fund is to be administered by the Union Trust Co., of Indianapolis, and the interest is compounded semi-annually, and in the two centuries will grow to the enormous sum noted.
The time element in Mr. Latta's will is something new in gifts, and with the long period just starting, it is merely a matter of guess work as to what will be here when the gift is available, but in all probability, greater changes than any here now predict, will come to pass by the time DePauw receives the generous bequest of Mr.
Latta.

the right clues found. The names of the books, and the clues are all mixed up, and the reader must find the correct clue for ten of the books.

Donald Grimes has painted a large colorful pirate on beaver board and this figure will be put in the library within the next few days. A treasure box will be placed at the foot of the pirate.

Dr. Jesse Lacklen, of Billings, Mont., sustained an injury to his hand about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon while lowering the top of his car. Dr. Lacklen, who is District Episcopal Church, was parked in front of the new Methodist Church with Dr.
G. Bromley Oxnam, president of Dety Hospital by the doctor, where it was necessary to stitch the ends of the middle and ring finger to avoid amputation. Dr. Lacklen has been the guest of friends in Greencastle for the past several days.

GUN BATTLE NEAR ROCKVILLE

CLINTON, Ind., June 18. (UP)— Their automobile riddled with gun fire in a battle with hi-jackers, two confessed bootleggers were in jail here today after telling police they were robbed of more than 100 gallons of liquor.

The men, Pete Mascola, 19, and Russell Brown, 22, both of Dayton, O., said they were enroute to the Ohio city from Clinton when the hi-jack-ers, opened fire on them.

Brown, the driver, said he "threw his machine open" in an attempt to lose the bandits but was overtaken near Rockville, Ind., where a rear wheel was shot from his automobile.

Brown said he then was forced to drive to a lonely spot on the highway where the hi-jackers relieved him and his companion of the liquor.

An airplane had failed today to find any trace of three young gunmen who obtained $13,000 in the robbery of the pedestrians as they sped out of the village.

UNIVERSITY IS BENEFICIARY IN LATTA'S WILL

TRUST FOR TWO CENTURIES

WILL THEN TOTAL $17,500,000

Prominent DePauw Grad And Trustee Made His Will Only Six Days Before Death

Two hundred years from now, De-Pauw University will receive $17,500,- 000 according to the will made on June 6, 1929, by Will H. Latta, prominent Indianapolis attorney, who was killed last Wednesday night when his auto was struck by a Monon train near Carmel. The sum is to be added to the endowment fund of the school when presented to the institution by the Union Trust Company of Indianapolis, trustee.

An Indianapolis dispatch says:
An unusual will in which an estate of more than $50,000 will be kept intact for 200 years at compound interest, when it will amount to approximately $169,000,000 and then be broken up into public bequests, was offered for probate yesterday.

Miss Emma Marguerite Sander of Fort Wayne, Latta's fiancée, was given one-fourth of the remainder of the estate after the public bequests.

DePauw University, the Art Association of Indianapolis and the city of Ligonier are the only beneficiaries now in existence. The other beneficiaries are created in the will.

A total of $10,000 is left in trust with the Union Trust Company for 200 years to acquire land for erection and maintaining the "Carrie Hunt Latta Memorial library" in this city. Mrs. Latta was the wife of the attorney. He visited her grave at Plainfield shortly before his car was struck by the train.

At the end of the two centuries the money, which is expected to total approximately $35,000,000, is to be used to purchase five full city blocks for the library site, erect the building and support the library.

The Indianapolis Conservatory of Music is to be built and maintained with another $35,000,000. The conservatory is to be semipublic and operated on a nonprofit basis. The money is to be held in trust by the Indiana Trust Company. The conservatory is to be built on a site six blocks long.

A permanent endowment of $35,- 000,000 is to be available to the Art Association of Indianapolis at the end of the 200-year period. A part of the money is to be used to erect a new building for the organization.
It is left in trust with the Fletcher Savings and Trust Company.

The Latta university at Ligonier is to be created and built with approximately $2,000,000. The institution is to be operated by the Methodist Episcopal church. The money to start the building program will be available at the end of 150 years, according to terms of the will. At the end of 200 years it is expected about $35,- 000,000 will be available for an endowment fund for the university. In 250 years another $10,000,000 is to be added to the endowment fund. A total of $12,000 is left in trust with the Chicago Title and Trust Company for the school.

The city of Ligonier is to receive approximately $5,000,000 in 200 years for "city beautification and industrial expansion."

Creation of Latta University and the Ligonier gift were made in memory of William M. and Harriet Jackson Latta, parents of the attorney, the will sets out.

The remainder of the estate is to be shared equally by Miss Sander, Carlyle M. Latta and Donald B. Latta, nephews of Mr. Latta, and DePauw University. The bequests are to be made immediately.

CONGRESS TO TAKE RECESS

LAWMAKERS TO RE-CONVENE ABOUT AUGUST 19. TWO MONTHS VACATION

WASHINGTON, June 18. (UP)— President Hoover's special farm relief and tariff revision session of congress probably will recess tomorrow for two months, the Senate returning August 19 to work on the tariff bill.

The summer recess is being taken in an atmosphere heavy with doubt as to what form the new tariff will take. Clearing the way for the vacation, floor leader James E. Watson had defeated the Borah resolution which sought to wipe out half the House tariff bill and confine Senate action upon it to agricultural schedules only.

Watson won by a single vote, 39 to 38. The floor leader then succeeded in getting a ruling from Vice President Curtis that the two month recess must be decided without debate.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Frances Frank filed a suit for divorce in the Putnam Circuit court Tuesday morning against Leslie Frank on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The complaint states that they were married in January of this year and separated on June 4. James and Alice are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant struck her with his fists, slapped her, and did not make proper provisions for her maintenance and support. She also asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Frances Hinkle, and support money.

the nature of a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mitchell and the ladies are to be present. Each Kiwanis lady is asked to bring table service for two. The ladies will have nothing to do with serving the supper, this work being looked after by the men.

schools of theology conducted throughout the United States by the POLICE START NEW LINE OF ATTACK IN BRUTAL

SLAYING

COLUMBUS, O., June 18. (UP)— A new line of attack in the investigation of Theresa Hix's murder was opened today when Marion Myers, Ohio State University horticulturist, was refused release from custody, and plied with questions regarding the attractive co-ed's relations with Dr.
James H. Snook, her sponsor.

Unable to shake Dr. Snook's story that he was in his home Thursday night when Miss Hix was beaten to death, Prosecutor Jack Chester turned to Myers, who had been cleared of direct complicity in the slaying, but was not freed last night as planned.

Instead, Myers was taken by Chester at midnight to the morgue where Miss Hix's body is held. Made to stand over the mutilated remains, Myers was forced to listen to rapid questioning.

"You are afraid of Snook," Prosecutor Chester said finally after failing to elicit new information. "You think he will 'get' you so you're keeping quiet."

Chester was especially hopeful of learning from Myers what he knew of Miss Hix's connection with Dr.
Snook's alleged distribution of narcotics, but made little progress in that direction.

The extent of Snook's narcotics activities was undetermined. It is known only, authorities said, that the professor gave narcotics to a number of persons.

A safety fence was erected around

Ceph Galloway of Bloomington is laying claim to the championship among fishermen. He bases his claim on the fact that the open season for catching fish went into effect at 12 o'clock Saturday night, and exactly at 12:02, he had hooked a two pound bass. Ceph was standing on the banks of Griffey Creek, north of Bloomington as the clock struck 12, and at once started striking, he cast, and almost before it finished he had hooked his first catch of the season. Now can some Greencastle fisherman, equal or beat this story.

Distorted Evidence

No amount of statistical evidence, distorted in an effort to mislead the public, can disprove government figures showing the gain of Lucky Strike to be greater than the combined increase of all other cigarettes. The public will be served and this is proof, indeed, that regardless of price, you actually get more in Lucky Strike than any other cigarette can offer. Its perfect blend of fine tobaccos gives pure smoking delight. Its exclusive, secret toasting process guarantees the tobaccos free from irritants and impurities and, in the opinion of 20,679* physicians, makes Lucky Strike less irritating than other cigarettes.

P. J. MEYERS Plumbing and Heating

No town is better than its people.
Ride the trains, the busses, or lounge about the lobbies of the hotels in the evening and you will usually find a group of traveling men comparing notes. You will get scraps of conversation something like this:

"Just came from there today. Could not sell a thing. That town's dealer than a mackerel."

"I'd cut that town and save expense money."

"Yes, Blanktown is going good. I had a nice business there day before yesterday."

"Had $1200.00 worth of collections over there and came out of town with $22.50 and one order. It's a grave yard."

"Can't kick about Youtown.
They're alive over there and going good."

Listen to these gentlemen and you'll get a pretty accurate idea of business conditions in nearby territory. Perhaps you will wonder why one town is dead and another, less than fifty miles distant, is alive and doing business. The answer is this: No town is better than its people.

It is a fact that two towns, of practically the same size, in the same territory and facing the same general conditions, may vary greatly in prosperity without any surface indication of the cause.

People do not differ much and "human nature is the same the world over" we are told, but it is equally true that some cities are dead because the people have been gradually PULL-ING APART and other cities are alive because their people have got the habit of PULLING TOGETHER.

In the PULLING APART town you will find the people divided by petty jealousies, political feuds, religious differences, dominated by factions and every fellow blaming the other for the unfortunate conditions.
You will find silent factories, empty store rooms, vacant houses, declining real estate values and men anxious to find buyers for their homes or business, but unable to do so.

In another city, with no greater natural advantages, you will find business on the boom, nothing available for rent, realty values up and the people happy and prosperous. In nine cases out of ten you'll find the citizens PULLING TOGETHER to make things still better and busier.
And this pulling together is more than Commercial Club activity or weekly luncheons of the Rotarians, Kiwanians, Lions or what not. It is a contagious spirit of community pride, born of faith, hope and charity.

It is the little things that count in community building as in everything else. The biggest little thing in the building of any city is loyalty to home industries and institutions.

The little money that each citizen sends away for a fancied bargain does not amount to much in itself but the total of these sent-away dollars is the difference between prosperity and depression in your city. If you don't believe it make a little survey of your own. Estimate the money orders, express orders, checks, going to distant cities, and check the incoming freight and express shipments. Your banker, railroad agent, postal employees and expressman can give you—confidentially—an idea of how seriously these sent-away dollars is handicapping the growth of your city.

Glorious Was Relief Through New Konjola

Gas Bloating, Heart Palpitation And Indigestion Pains Yield To Modern Medicine.

MRS. FREMANTLE HENDERSON
"Konjola opened a new life of health and glorious energy to me," said Mrs. Fremantle Henderson, R. R. No. 6, Edgewood, near Indianapolis. "I dreaded the thought of eating, for I knew suffering would follow. I became nervous, and the least little thing out of the ordinary upset me. I lost weight and strength, until I was but a shell of my former self. Then neuritis set in. The pains were indescribable."

"But Konjola brought me glorious relief." In a surprisingly short time I felt immeasurably better. The various aches and pains disappeared, and all stomach symptoms were swept away. My nerves became quiet and calm. Neuritis pains are only memories. Words are useless when it comes to describing the powers of this new medicine. Konjola is certainly a medicine of merit."

Konjola is sold in Greencastle at the Owl drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. —(Adv.)

INQUIRE FOR SUITCASES

The two suitcases at the office of Sheriff Edward Eiteljorge were inquired for at the Hawthorne Yards near Indianapolis, according to a report from the Sheriff Tuesday morning.

The bags were found in an empty box car at Limesdale Monday morning by a billing clerk by the name of Babcock. Both contained a quantity of men and women's clothing and number of small articles.

According to this report, a man, a woman dressed as a man, were at the Hawthorne Yards for two cases. They stated that they had thrown them on the car, but had been unable to get on themselves.

Word was sent from here to the yards to tell the couple, if they should inquire for them again, that the suitcases are. They will have been extensively identified before the sheriff will turn them over to the owners.

DON'T FORGET!

MILK

Sweet for a Week in FRIGIDAIRE

Daily tests concluded yesterday prove that Frigidaire preserves food and protects health.
Decide to have Frigidaire now.

SINCE June 11th, you've seen how Frigidaire keeps milk, and other perishable food, in perfect condition.
You've seen the actual tests for yourself. And today the milk is sweet and healthful as it was a week ago!

Imagine having Frigidaire in your home! Think of the health protection it affords by eliminating food spoilage ... the money it saves by ending ice bills and all refrigeration bothers. And Frigidaire costs but a few cents a day to operate ... pays for itself as you pay for it.

Remember that Frigidaire ... with its powerful and incredibly quiet mechanism, its self-sealing trays and its remarkable "Cold Control" for even faster freezing ... is surprisingly low in price.
It's easy to buy on General Motors liberal terms. Get all the facts. Come in and let's talk it over. Call now...today.
